Newsletter for August 2004

Vol. 2 No. 8

Praise's of the Month

Our greatest praise this month is for Kathy. She is one of our prayer warriors that had been diagnosed with one of the fastest growing forms of cancer known to man. Read about her healing in the He is still on the throne department. We are praising the Lord for the park ministry. We had Dale Smith an evangelist from Illinois come and preach on August 19th. We provided dinner for all the people that showed up. We had several homeless people that came and were ministered to. Scott was our chef and slaved over the Barbecue. We even had several pastors from around the state come and join us. A good time was had by all that attended. Those of you who could not make it missed out. We recorded the whole program and when we finish editing it we will send out a copy to our partners. We have had three more overseas ministries join in partnership with the ministry. Finally we are looking into starting a broadcast of "Where the Rubber Meets the Road" in Kathmandu Nepal.

Mary's Thoughts for the Month

One of my favorite scriptures is : 2 Corinthians 9:8 : "God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that you, always having sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work." This verse has certainly held true for me during the previous month. I assumed the directorship of our sister ministry, Global Prayer Warriors, and have doubled my workload in the process. The Lord's grace definitely has abounded towards me during this transition period. My biggest worry (I know, never borrow the worry of tomorrow for today has sufficient worries of its own) has been not to neglect any of my other ministerial duties as I assumed the extra responsibility. I praise the Lord for the provisions He has made for me during this time. I Praise Him for the two week prayer retreat Jay and I managed to have (even though we were less than 30 minutes from Pinedale), what a glorious time of prayer and refreshing it was. God's grace, what would we do without it?

Love in Christ Mary.

Pastor's Corner

Sometimes I want to ask the Lord where will it all end? But I have read the book and know where it will all end. Over the last few years Mary's favorite quote is from the Bible. Matt 24:12 "Sin will be rampant everywhere, and the love of many will grow cold" Today our ministry office landlord was talking to me. He was at the post office waiting in line to pick up a package and a rude young man pushed him aside to get to the counter. I must point out that our landlord is 83 years old and has a hard time walking let alone keeping his balance when pushed. I see around me more and more the lack of love and care for others by this world. We let people starve on the streets of our country, yet our pets are so overweight we must have special diet pet food. Do you see what is happening? Do you see the changes around us? Twice this weekend it was prophesied about this country that we would become a third world nation. That America would be brought to its knees for leaving it's first God. In May of this year a "new" Bible translation was published. It is called "good as new". This group felt qualified to leave numerous books out of the New Testament. This so called "bible" is pure blasphemy! But have you seen or heard of Christians protesting against it? Have you heard of thousands and thousands writing the publisher? No! we have let it go by without much notice. Let me quote you just a few of the changes they have made.

Mark 1:10-11

Authorized version: "And straightway coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens opened, and the Spirit like a dove descending upon him. And there came a voice from the heaven saying, Thou art my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Good as New: "As he was climbing up the bank again, the sun shone through a gap in the clouds. At the same time a pigeon flew down and perched on him. Jesus took this as a sign that God's spirit was with him. A voice from overhead was heard saying, 'That's my boy! You're doing fine!'"

Did you notice it was not that the heavens opened, but the sun shone between the clouds? Did you noticed that it was a pigeon that flew down, but not the Spirit of God? Did you notice it was not a sign from God but, that it was "Jesus that took this as a sign"?

1 Corinthians 7:1-2

KJV: "Now concerning the things whereof ye wrote unto me: [It is] good for a man not to touch a woman. Nevertheless, [to avoid] fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband."

Good as New: "Some of you think the best way to cope with sex is for men and women to keep right away from each other. That is more likely to lead to sexual offences. My advice is for everyone to have a regular partner."

Notice that here there is no mention of husband, wife or marriage? No mention of restraint! No! it is a regular partner! Does it sound familiar, safe sex just have a regular partner.

Matthew 26:69-70

Authorized version: "Now Peter sat without in the palace: and a damsel came unto him, saying, 'Thou also wast with Jesus of Galilee.' But he denied before them all, saying, I know not what thou sayest."

Good as New: "Meanwhile Rocky was still sitting in the courtyard. A woman came up to him and said: 'Haven't I seen you with Jesus, the hero from Galilee?'" Rocky shook his head and said: 'I don't know what the hell you're talking about!'"

Notice here we have lowered Peter to our common language. No longer do we have "upon this rock I will build my Church" Now we are looking for "Rocky II" in the Acts of the Apostles.

Could it be that Jesus was not just talking about the world when He said "the love of many will grow cold". Does any of this hurt your heart? The sermon I preached Sunday was "How well do you know Jesus?" Maybe it should have been "how much do you love Jesus?" How can we let things like this just happen without having a holy anger? Each and every day I see more and more disrespect for the Lord and His word. Why? Because we Christians will not stand up for our Lord. Because the world does not see " a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people." Mary was banned from a so called "Christian" internet board because she had the gall to tell them to give their sin over to the Lord and He would release them. This group considered themselves as "securely" saved Christians yet they were daily involved in pornography and masturbation. (the "we fall down but we get up" theology) To quote a word given to an old evangelist by the Lord. "You do not fall when you commit a blunder, you fall when you commit the blunder a second time." This my friends is what the world sees as Christians! Not what Jesus wants them to see. 1Peter 1:15&16 But as he which hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of conversation; Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy. If the question should not be "how much do you love the Lord?" Then maybe it should be "how much do you fear the Lord?" The time is coming when we will face the judgement wrath of God. What will we say when the Lord asks us Why?, not why did this happen but Why did you not defend me before man?" One final thought, in the early 70's there was a relatively innocent movie called " Oh GOD". It had God portrayed as a little old man played by George Burns. Yes, it mocked Christians but it had a moral message. Today I saw that they are making a remake of the movie with Ellen Degeneress an openly homosexual woman playing the part of God. How many "Christians" will go and see the movie with no problem? How long oh Christian, How long will our Lord and Savior hold back His wrath? Be ye holy; for I am holy.

THE HE IS STILL ON THE THRONE DEPARTMENT!!

Or my lord rules hallelujah!!

Here is my testimony, feel free to edit and re-write this is my first healing so I didn't know how to express it except the way it was. I hope this reaches millions and that by these few words many are Saved and Healed. God Bless, Kathy and the girls, Marykathryn and Destiny Dalton.

Healed !Who? Me? Yes, Praise the Lord, He is Alive and in the healing business. Oh I don't know how to tell this story in a way that will give him all the Glory Our Father deserves therefore, I am not going to add all the things that Christians usually say or say what someone wants me to say. I am telling this story the way it happened and what Our Father did for a Woman of modest means with 8 children who wanted to live and cried Out For Help From Her Father. Oh, Father I don't know how to do all the things in order or how it is suppose to be done, I want to live I want to see my last two girls through their High School Years. I want to enjoy the ending years of my life as a gray haired Grandma that loves her grandchildren. Father there have been many struggles in my life and I have climbed every mountain you have put before me, I am used to the struggle and used to the victory, but this time I need you to move that Mountain. I am weak and weary and unsure and in despair, I am not asking why Father I am asking for help, amen.

I don't know what came over me...I had already heard the news...6-12mos to live, that was on Sept. 8, 2003 when the doctor came into my room where a couple of friends had brought my girls up to see me. A handsome young doctor came in and he said he had to talk to me. I had never seen him before in my life, so I asked if my friends should leave and take the girls and he said no they need to hear this. This sounds so cold but it is exactly the way it happened.

“Hi, I am doctor so and so, and I was asked to consult on your case by doctor so and so. You have what is known as Renal Cell Carcinoma Stage 4”. I just stared and so did the girls, he was talking so fast and using big words, and we all just sat there as he went on. “This means you have Kidney Cancer, and it has spread to your lungs. You will be dead within 6mos to one year. You can have the kidney out, but do you really want to spend 2/3 of the time you have left re-cooperating?”

Suddenly I looked over at my daughter, Marykathryn her head was back looking at the ceiling and her mouth was open and I saw tears and heard no sound. I went deaf, I watched my friend shuffle out my girls and yet I heard no more. I was deaf for 3 days or more. I don't know exactly how long, for our life as we knew it would never be the same. You cannot UN-ring the bell so to speak. I don't know how or who or what contacted my older daughter Tera, but someone did and my sister Carla from Florida. This is where I really can't say much as it is a blur. I somehow wound up at the University of Iowa Medical Center in Iowa City, Iowa. I had my kidney surgery on Oct. 2, 2003, and while on the table I lost a liter of blood in 10 seconds they say. For some reason I lived through the surgery and did not need a transfusion. The Urologist and Medical students were in awe and told me so. They could not believe what they saw in that surgical suite that day.

Dr. Konety was wonderful to my family and when he saw the size of the tumor, he was amazed. Even my neighbors from home were there waiting in the waiting room, and the entire surgery took over 8 hrs. At one in the morning I was at last headed to my room. During that surgery the doctors had gone out and told them what had happened and the outcome may not be as expected. Little did he know how right he was going to be. He came into my room upon discharge and told me he had a friend that was starting a clinical trial that may extend my life, I was grateful. Two weeks post-op I made the trip to meet the new dr. Dr. Gerald Clamon, he would be someone I soon learned to respect. He was kind and gentle and soft, not flashy or bold. After that meeting he explained that our goal was to enroll into the clinical trial. He was also the one who designed and illustrated this medical wonderment and was taking me under his wing, again I was grateful.

Time marched on, and at first I begged God to save me, this went on for a couple of months. The wounds healed quickly, which amazed the doctors. Yet my blood work was off just enough not to let me into the trial. They have special rules and restrictions for these clinical trials are experimental. We are now moving into January, and I am feeling much better and I was sure that on January 22 I would be allowed into trial. Well I met the trial nurse and I signed all the papers. I was all ready for trial, after all the I's were dotted and the T's were crossed, but one little lab report (again a blood issue was off) prevented it. I was scanned and re-scanned and checked over, and finally on April sixth everything was just right, and this was about the time I began to bargain with God. "Lord, if You will just let me see the girls raised I will". Oh, I thought He had taken me up on the deal, and I was going to see the girls raised. Well I was in the room waiting for the trial nurse and getting all set up to join at last, it had been a long six months and in my mind my time was swiftly running out. So this was a miracle to me, and then suddenly Dr. Clamon came in with his nurse, and she said she had called the trial nurse and I was ready to go. He looked at me, and said that she should cancel it, she said "Cancel What"? He told her, "she doesn't need it the spots are small and there has been no change in these spots since the cancer was discovered". Then he said "go home and we will see you at the end of June or July". I was so happy and yet something kept haunting me, this cancer is deadly this cancer has no cure, they are just putting you off and you are going to die. Well this is when I surrendered, I was screaming the opening of this story, crying, and asking my Father for help, you see I figured something out, and I believe it was God whispering in my ear. Saying, "Kathy you have to believe before you receive not receive and then believe". I gave it up, all of it and I was resigned that it was up to Him. I was not in control of my destiny. When I went to Dr. Clamon on July 30th, there was still no change, and I found out I had diabetes. I didn't bat an eye, I knew that it was something the Lord would take care of. I went to a diabetic doctor the next week and am doing what I was told with medication and sugar control. What I am telling you is that I didn't cry or get afraid. I should have known something was different, but I didn't. I had an appointment with a local Oncologist, and didn't keep it as I just didn't want to go to so many doctors. Well the phone rang and I answered...it was the local Oncologist's nurse wanting to re-set my appointment in Des Moines. Now that doesn't happen., they really don't care if you come or not. If you fail to give a 24 hr. notice they charge your insurance anyway. Well, what was strange here is I only saw this Dr. one other time, and the funny thing is when he was a medical student he worked under Dr. Clamon at the University of Iowa. Now wait a minute, this Dr.'s office is less than a mile from my home. I saw this guy once and I made a return appointment and they called me to reset? This was strange. OK, I reset, and went to keep that appointment on the 18th of Aug., he came in and started the conversation by saying I want to talk to you about your Cancer. I had signed forms for him to get reports from Iowa City and any and all other doctors. "Ok, what about", ( I said with a calm I had never had), I looked into his eyes directly face to face. He had large soft brown eyes that captured me in an instant, and he proceeded to talk. He said "Kathy, don't ever worry about this cancer again, it appears to me that it is dead tissue", only he used the word Necrotic "and it hasn't grown in a year. The worse thing is it could come back or it is indolent, which means slow growing and it is so slow it could 20 plus years before it bothers you". He said to me "tell your girls you will be there". The strangest thing was I didn't even remember sharing that I wanted to live for my girls for any length of time. I had prayed that, but not talked to this Doctor about it, I swear this is the truth. I am a living healed woman, I give money to the Lord when I can. I have been a prayer warrior for several months. And the only thing that I truly believe that healed me was I believed, and I believed. Just like I knew how, not taught, not lead, just believing that my Father would carry me. I always have the poem Footprints in my mind. This isn't a revival tent, and you can't see me lift myself up, you cannot see my scars you only have my word. But, don't listen to my word, listen To His word, and anything is possible, if you only believe it. I will be willing to pray with and for you, to testify about this miracle and I will continue to stand on my faith that I have been saved and healed, and He Wants The Same For You.

BE ONE

There is one prayer in the Bible that has never been answered by Christians. John 17:21 "That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." This prayer occurs three times in John chapter 17, in verse 11, in verse 21 and in verse 22. Both Dale Smith and Butch McClure were given the same word when they were here, unity! You have heard me many times rant and rave about ministries who's sole purpose is to further themselves. But if you love Jesus with all your heart and have a personal relationship with Jesus you will always want to further others not yourself. Has anyone ever thought that this might be one reason that the Lord has not returned before now. We can see starting with the New Testament, that the church was already seeing divisions. Can you imagine what would happen if we as Christians would put aside all our denominations, fall on our faces and truly give our lives to Jesus what would happen in the world. What did Jesus say "that the world may believe that thou hast sent me." If this is a key then it would explain part of the reason for the ever increasing darkness. There is no unity in the body. I will use a recent example. Mary and I dared to express our concern over an Assembly of God's published article stating basically, that there was nothing wrong with Harry Potter books and they even have good moral lessons. All we did was express our concerns that the Lord wants holiness from His people. We now hear that we "walked away from the Assemblies". We love all God's children especially all those who love Jesus, who serve Jesus, who have that personal relationship with Him. One of our dearest prayer partners is a member of the Assembly of God. We still work and help many good Christians in the Assembly of God. We have one Pastor and his wife who have been working in this county for 20 years. We often attend their church, which is A.O.G.. But, we know their hearts are for Jesus. It was only one elite group that amputated us from their Assembly for our beliefs. They decided to ostracize us rather than look at us as brothers and sisters in Christ, who love the Lord. We became the bad guys, evil backsliders for mentioning the word most churches hate today, "Holiness" We must become one as the Father and Son are ONE!. Awhile back I was in prayer about the churches we work with and help. None are perfect just like we are not perfect. I wanted a Holy Ghost church of the Acts of the Apostles time. The Lord showed me that even in that time there were problems. Check out Acts where they are grumbling that the widows are not being taken care of. Just check out some of Paul's letters. Problems, strife, disagreements, but did that stop them?

No they had their eyes on Jesus. They loved Jesus with all their hearts and came together often as one accord. The Lord showed me a vision when I was praying about the churches we work with. He showed me an ear of corn with the green husk still on. He said the green husk was the church. You must peel off the husk to get to the seed. The Lord said " that's what I want you to work with the seed not the husk." When you have a problem with a church body before you walk out the door make sure you have gotten through the husk and seen the seed. We still love and pray for the seed that attend the husk that amputated us. We still will feed and love the seed but cannot work with the husk. Remember, as with an ear of corn, once the ear has been picked, the husk dries up and becomes brown and worthless. If the seed is not harvested in time the seed also dries up and is of no use but to feed to the pigs on the farm. It is the same way with the church. If there is not true "Jesus Love" in the body the church will dry up and eventually the seed will become of no use to the Lord. Rev 3:16 "So because you are lukewarm and neither hot nor cold, I will spit (vomit) you out of my mouth" Jesus' words not mine. Lets get unity and love back in our churches before it is too late.

*Love Ya
Pastor A. J.*

From the Directors Chair

Psalm 106

Read: Psalm 106

As we notice where this psalm begins it is easy to remember many places in God's word that we begin with praise and thanksgiving. As we focus on God's mercy and on his mighty acts, who could help but be filled with praise and thanksgiving? Verse 2 says, "Who can utter the mighty acts of the Lord? Who can show forth all his praise?" No one can start to see the big picture, or start to declare all that God has done on our behalf. When we read this psalm and read in Exodus of all the ways that God's people disbelieved, disobeyed, murmured, and complained, even to the point at times of wanting to go back into slavery, we can better understand why all God's people, except two, did not go in to the good land flowing with milk and honey. Many times their hearts were not right before Him. He did miracles everyday among them. His presence was with them in the pillar of cloud by day, and the pillar of fire by night continually. They went through the desert on the way to the land of promise and like Nehemiah God was fighting the battles for them (See Nehemiah 4:20).

God knew that when the people saw war they would repent and turn back. Look at Exodus 13:17 and following. Look at the first reaction of the children of Israel when they saw the Egyptian army marching after them. Exodus 14:10 says they “cried out unto the Lord”. But look at what they do from that point and following. As we follow through the book of Exodus we see the story of how the children of Israel were tested in the desert on their way to the land of promise. At each place that they have a need or they are told to obey the Lord they usually start out by murmuring against Moses or just flat out disobeying the Lord’s command. They were pursued by a huge Egyptian army, but God had a plan. They went three days into the wilderness, and found no water, but God had a plan (Ex 15:22). Forty five days into the wilderness they didn’t know what they were going to eat, but God had a plan (Ex 16:1-3). They got thirsty again in Exodus 17, but God had a plan. Friends you continue to read this account of the Israelites going into the land of promise and you see that they complained to the man of God instead of crying out to the Lord. They chose to disbelieve instead of trusting the Lord.

The eyes of the Lord are upon the righteous, and his ears are open unto their cry. (Psalm 34:15) The righteous cry, and the Lord heareth, and delivereth them out of all their troubles. (Psalm 34:17) And call upon me in the day of trouble: I will deliver thee, and thou shalt glorify me. (Psalm 50:15)

Many other sins did they provoke the Lord with that we can see in Psalm 106, and many of these we see prevailing in America today. When we see the times of testing in our own lives, the Lord directs us to Hebrews 12:5, “despise not the chastening of the Lord”. We have be very careful how we react or we make the same mistake as the Israelites.

The right response is found in Philippians 4:4-7 and again in 1 Thessalonians 5:16-18, which reads: <sup>16</sup>Always be joyful. <sup>17</sup>Keep on praying. <sup>18</sup>No matter what happens, always be thankful, for this is God’s will for you who belong to Christ Jesus.

If we will cry out to the Lord when we have a need or when there is a battle, with praise and thanksgiving giving glory to God, God will fight our enemies for us. God wants us to enter into this rest, this rest of letting Him be God and not taking the burden upon ourselves. Our plan, having to have our own way, with our limited vision, and limited strength will bring exhaustion and despair. God calls this an evil heart of unbelief. See Hebrews 3:7 which reads: <sup>7</sup>That is why the Holy Spirit says, “Today you must listen to his voice, and following Isa 30:15 which reads: <sup>15</sup>The Sovereign LORD, the Holy One of Israel, says, “Only in returning to me and waiting for me will you be saved. In quietness and confidence is your strength. But you would have none of it.

Bretheren, please set your heart upon Jesus today.

God Bless, Bro Scott

TEACHING OF THE MONTH

THE GOOD OLD DAYS

Jay and I have a lot of discussions about the “the good old days when we were growing up”. Very often we remember how much kinder and gentler a world we lived in than the one we are living in today. You could actually feel safe never locking your doors; kids could play outside long after dark with no fear of predators. No stores were open on Sunday; the big fuss was watching the Beatles on Ed Sullivan (our parent’s thought they were longhaired freaks). Girls wore mohair sweaters, the guys wore poor boy shirts, and we listened to Ricky Nelson and Herman’s Hermits, James Taylor and Carol King. Twilight Zone was considered prime time entertainment, and reality shows would have been laughed at for their sheer absurdity. The Lennon Sister’s were regulars on the Lawrence Welk show, and they had their own line of paper dolls. I remember sleeping with brush rollers in my hair (ouch by the way) and wearing fish net stockings, panty hose were first invented in 1935, but they were still a novelty item when I was growing up. Now I feel old, for those of you who are wondering, Jay turned 50 in March and I follow suit next month. We grew up in a more innocent time, shortly before we were born Israel became a state again (1948) that is the single most astounding bit of Biblical prophecy fulfilled in our lifetime: <sup>34</sup>“Assuredly, I say to you, this generation will by no means pass away till all these things take place”. (Matthew 24:34) Many things have changed in this world in the fifty years we have been alive. Prayer was allowed in school back then, it was actually encouraged up until 1962. A Year later on November 11th 1963, when President Kennedy was shot and killed school was dismissed, but not before our teacher said a prayer with us, this was public school by the way. I was nine years old and it would be the last prayer I heard uttered in public school. Kids today can’t even say grace out loud during lunch in the cafeteria. When I was a child in school, no one could have ever imagined a tragedy such as happened at Columbine School.

Teachers and Principals were allowed to use corporal punishment on unruly children (spankings), then the unruly child usually was spanked when they returned home as well. Not so today, not only are Teachers not allowed to spank a child, they cannot even hug a child who is crying without fear of being accused of more. Parents cannot spank their children or otherwise correct their behavior physically without fear of being accused of child abuse. The other day we were horrified while reading about the two teenage boys who decided to beat a homeless man to death because they were bored. This is the direct result of a society that has become numb to senseless violence, where children have been raised without parental discipline. Jay picks on me because I quote a scripture from the Bible so often about the love of many growing cold, (Matthew 24:12) “And because lawlessness will abound, the love of many will grow cold”, but what else explains what we see in the world today? Even the church is not making a moral impact anymore, partially because so many of the denominations have become apostate, like Paul said in 2 Timothy Chapter 3: <sup>1</sup>This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. <sup>2</sup>For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, <sup>3</sup>Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good, <sup>4</sup>Traitors, heady, highminded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God; <sup>5</sup>Having a form of godliness, but denying the power thereof: from such turn away. Violence has escalated; people are callous, rude and uncaring. There was a heinous case just recently of the murder of six young adults in Florida; the murderers were so vicious in their beating of these people that even dental records could not be used to indentify the bodies. What could spur a vicious attack such as this one? One of the murderers was upset about a video game that he perceived to be stolen from him by one of the victims. We are living in perilous times, where men are lovers of themselves, without affection and love for each other. The Bible has a lot to say about the times that we are living in. In one respect we are a privileged generation for we are alive during one of the most exciting times of earth's history, we are the generation that could literally see Jesus return for His own. I never would have thought that while I was growing up, that one day during my lifetime that I would not only be watching for Jesus to return, but that I would be among the faithful who would spend eternity with Him. What do we do to stay focused during our waiting period? Jay and I encourage each other with the comforting thought of our Lord's soon return. We study the word of God, to show ourselves approved (2 Timothy 2:15) <sup>5</sup>Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth". We fellowship with other believers and we watch the signs of the times being fulfilled all around us. We pray together daily, we do not focus on the world, instead we focus on our Bridegroom, Jesus. We focus our energies on trying to bring as many people home with us that we can before the Lord returns. Labor for souls, for the days grow short. On the other side of eternity we will not labor for souls, but it will matter there if we have labored here. There is nothing more important to a Christian living today than to labor for the lost souls in this world. The formula hasn't changed since Jesus ascended to Heaven, the disciples immediately began to labor for the lost, and so should we. Many times Jay and I sit around and talk about what it will be like in Heaven, to be able to talk to Peter and some of the other saints of old. They will be anxious to talk with us, for they longed to be the generation that saw Jesus return to the earth, just as we sometimes long to have been the generation to have walked with Him in person. Pray for the Harvest and ask the Lord of the Harvest for laborers to be sent in, <sup>2</sup>Therefore said he unto them, The harvest truly is great, but the labourers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth labourers into his harvest. (Luke 10:2). That is how Jesus should find us when He returns for us. Laboring for the lost.

DO YOU LOVE ME?

Do you love me? Lord, you know that I do,
Then go and feed my sheep,
Do you love me? Lord you know that is true,
Then why are you fast asleep?
Do you love your neighbors as you love yourself?
Why haven't you introduced them to me?
My word is collecting dust there on your shelf,
And your heart drifts far from me,
Do you love me? Lord, I don't have time today,
My child, I have made time for you,

Do you love me? Yes, Lord, but let me go my way,
My child, I am the way, the life, and the truth,
Do you see the lost that I have brought your way?
You ignore them in their plight,
You don't like how they look, or what they say,
Yet, I died to bring them life,
Do you love me? Lord, I'll get back to you,
My child, how long shall I wait?
Do you love me? Lord, I have things to do,
My child, it will soon be too late,
Do you love the things of this world so much,
That your heart is committed to them?
Don't you miss our talks, my gentle touch,
How I long to heal you of your sins,
Do you love me? Yes, Lord, you are my all,
Then come and talk with me awhile,
Do you love me? Lord, I await your call,
And I love you my precious child.

WHAT YOUR INVESTMENT IN THIS MINISTRY DOES DEPARTMENT

Dear Pastor A. J. Warner

I am sending two new church's photos we have planted this year. We thank God for all achievement we have received from God and by your prayer. I do hope that you would pray for us. I am receiving the cassettes and publication. I am blessed.

Pastor Reuben

Pastor Reuben Rai and his group have become one of our international partners and we are going to help him obtain his ordination. We are currently working with him on starting a broadcast of Where the Rubber meets the road in his country of Nepal.
